After School clubs are not applicable for Reception Children

Please note that all after school activities are now being run by external providers and they are responsible for your children whilst participating in the activity.

The Academy office will be closed from 4.00 pm.

If your child / children wish to take part in any activity, please collect the relevant registration form from the office which will confirm the term charges for the relevant activity.

Please complete the form and return to the office with the correct payment, in a named envelope, no change can be given to you by the office. All registration forms and money will be given directly to the club provider.

Your child / children will not be able to take part in any activity until both have been received.

It is imperative that each club provider has emergency contact details for you so please kindly make sure you record these details on their registration form.

Your child / children will need to have their PE kit in school and a bottle of water if appropriate.

Please collect your child / children promptly from the Key Stage 2 door.

Contact details for each provider can be found on their registration forms.

Yours sincerely

Mrs C Welch
Principal
